

TRUCHARD

2010 PINOT NOIR

"Quite notable for its balance, this lovely Pinot shows a fine tension of acidity, tannins, oak and fruit. The overall effect is delightful, with a silky texture housing raspberry, cola, mushroom and sandalwood flavors. Good to drink now, but will easily develop over the next decade or so."

Wine Spectator

"Distinctive, offering fresh earth, bay leaf and porcini notes that mingle with complex cherry and red berry flavors on a medium body, revealing smooth tannins and hints of green tea and herb. Drink now through 2022. 2,860 cases made." —MW, May 2013
