

TRUCHARD VINEYARDS

ROUSSANNE

2007

This white variety has been traditionally associated with the Rhone Valley. It has rich aromas of green apple, honeydew melon, and lychee fruit; highlighted with pineapple and vanilla. The mouth has subtle flavors of nectarine, peach and fresh pear. Bright acidity provides a crisp finish of citrus, mineral, and spice.
— Sal de Ianni, Winemaker

TRUCHARD VINEYARDS

ROUSSANNE

2007

This white variety has been traditionally associated with the Rhone Valley. It has rich aromas of green apple, honeydew melon, and lychee fruit; highlighted with pineapple and vanilla. The mouth has subtle flavors of nectarine, peach and fresh pear. Bright acidity provides a crisp finish of citrus, mineral, and spice.
— Sal de Ianni, Winemaker

TRUCHARD VINEYARDS

ROUSSANNE

2007

This white variety has been traditionally associated with the Rhone Valley. It has rich aromas of green apple, honeydew melon, and lychee fruit; highlighted with pineapple and vanilla. The mouth has subtle flavors of nectarine, peach and fresh pear. Bright acidity provides a crisp finish of citrus, mineral, and spice.
— Sal de Ianni, Winemaker

TRUCHARD VINEYARDS

ROUSSANNE

2007

This white variety has been traditionally associated with the Rhone Valley. It has rich aromas of green apple, honeydew melon, and lychee fruit; highlighted with pineapple and vanilla. The mouth has subtle flavors of nectarine, peach and fresh pear. Bright acidity provides a crisp finish of citrus, mineral, and spice.
— Sal de Ianni, Winemaker